A force of men was supployed yesterday, under sharpe of J. G. Fairfowl, jr., in clearing any the debris of the fire at Corbit & Maching Ti was a singular spectacle to see them, with pick and shovel, delving in a bank of its which loaded the air with lie ador. Piles of papers and subsidiary account books were long dag out, and all kinds of groceries and servisions were scattered around in profusion. It was a sad spectacle to see the ruins of $145.100 worth of goods piled up in so small a space. One enterprising man offered $4000 for the damaged goods. TING RINK.

As Capi, J. A. Brown, the well-known stevedors, mas driving up off the lower wharf at the Mersey dock on Saturday evening, the lines in some manner became foul, and the horse commented running back. Capi. Brown jumped out and stexed the horse by the head, but the green became entangled around his legs and the horse continued running back, dragging him messe distance. Brown shouted to his friend in the buggy to jump, which he did just in time to save his life, as the horse and buggy went or the side of the wharf, falling upon some logs. The horse's neck was broken, but the buggy was not much injured.
